Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

Whereas, Kathy Kayl has been an employee of the Gregory school system for 30 years dedicating her teaching career to the field of Family and Consumer Sciences; and,

Whereas, Kathy has played a vital part in the curriculum development of Family and Consumer Science programs in schools throughout South Dakota by sharing her own knowledge and experience; and,

Whereas, Kathy's willingness to supervise many student teachers throughout her own teaching career has assured the continuation of well prepared and qualified teachers within our state's educational system; and,

Whereas, Kathy has been advisor and mentor to numerous district and state Family, Career, and Community Leaders of America officers as well as fellow advisors; and,

Whereas, Kathy served as president of the state affiliate of the American Association of Family and Consumer Sciences, as well as holding several other officer positions; and,

Whereas, Kathy will retire from her current position with the Gregory school system on April 28, 2003, and this will allow her to spend time and enjoy the life and activities of her three children, Jim, Bob, Melanie and their families, which include four grandchildren; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on this momentous occasion:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 28, 2003, as in South Dakota, and I join her colleagues, family and friends in honoring Kathy for her dedication to the field of education.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-third Day of April in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
